Finance of America Cares creates volunteer opportunities that connect our company’s employees to community groups in need. Focusing on your interests, our team will create a customized community service experience. We coordinate everything: planning, supplies, and logistics. Your employees just show up, volunteer, and make a difference!

From a single day, large-scale makeover to quarterly donation drives, we work with you to create your ideal project. Projects can range in scale from 1 to 1,000 volunteers. When applicable, your project may incur fees based on project size and type for materials of which FOA Cares is not responsible for; however, FOA Cares does not charge a fee for their administrative services.

Below are just a few ideas for how FOA Cares can help. Simply e-mail cares@financeofamerica.com to get started on your plan!

OPPORTUNITY OVERVIEW	Employees can volunteer at the nonprofit of their choice for a cause their passionate about for opportunities that fit in their schedules.	Partner with local nonprofits that you and your team are passionate about to create a volunteer event that aligns with your group’s schedules, and interests.	Collect items in your office such as clothing, canned food, coats, and more for the benefit of a nonprofit group, and the underserved in an effort to meet their basic needs.	From a single-day makeover of a school, to building a specially adapted home for an injured Veteran, we align the interests of your team with revitalizing the community.	This team-building activity entails assembling hygiene kits, packing them in boxes, and providing the gift of good health to local homeless.	This charitable team bike-building activity will contribute memorable gifts to children who would otherwise never have the joy of owning a bicycle.	Help individuals and families from low-income communities on their road to self-sufficiency by inviting them to partake in a skills-based workshop hosted by your office.
